

Instructions to Authors

Mammal Study is the official journal of the Mammal Society of Japan. It publishes Original papers, Short communications and Reviews on all aspects of mammalogy quarterly, written in English. Manuscripts are submitted to qualified referees for critical scientific reviewing. Authors are notified, with referees' comments, on acceptance, rejection or need for revision within three months.

Form of manuscripts

Manuscripts should be typed in the A4 size (21.0 × 29.7 cm) and double-spaced. Each sentence should conclude with a full stop followed by two spaces. An approximately 3 cm margin should be left on all sides. Do not hyphenate words at the right margin. Manuscripts should be arranged in the following order: on the first page, the title, name(s) of author(s) and affiliation, running head (fewer than 40 letters, including spaces), fax number and E-mail address for correspondence; from the second page, abstract (fewer than 200 words) and key words (five words or fewer), main text, acknowledgments, references, figure legends, figures and tables. Titles of papers must be accurate and concise, and (for abstraction services) include any relevant taxonomic name. Text pages should be numbered through from title to references. Manuscripts should be line-numbered, every five lines, in the left margin. Short Communications cannot exceed six printed pages and have fewer than 3,500 words including references. Abstracts and key words are omitted from Short Communications.

Submission of manuscript

Authors should submit the manuscripts via ScholarOne Manuscripts online submission system for Mammal Study. The combined size for all uploaded files should be no larger than 10 MB. The URL is as follows.

<http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/mamst>

To submit your manuscript, first create an account on ScholarOne Manuscripts, and then access the Author Center. Click on the 'Submit New Manuscript' and follow the instructions.

Main body of the text

Main body of the text containing title page, abstract, text, references and figure legends should be prepared in Microsoft Word. The editor strongly recommends authors ask native English speakers to check the manuscript before submission.

Tables and figures

Tables and figures should be simple and self-explanatory, and their preferred locations should be indicated in the right margin of the text. Table and figure files should be prepared separately from the main body file. Tables should be prepared in Microsoft Excel. The recommended formats for figures are TIF, EPS, PSD (Adobe Photoshop) and AI (Adobe Illustrator). The resolution of color pictures should be a minimum of 300 dpi.

Measurements, abbreviations and others

All measurements should be in metric units. The following abbreviations should be used. Length: km, m, cm, mm, etc.; area: km², m², etc.; volume: km³, m³, kl, l, ml, etc.; weight: kg, g, mg, etc.; time: hr, min, sec, etc.; others: cal, kcal, °C, Hz, df, P (probability), SD, SE, CV, etc. Arabic numerals should be used for numbers exceeding 10. Scientific names should be written in italic.

References

References in the text should follow the forms: "Corbet and Hill (1992) stated that ...", (Corbet and Hill 1992), and (Abe et al. 1991). More than one reference within the same parentheses should be listed chronologically, alphabetically if of the same year. Full references cited must be listed alphabetically by the first author according to the following examples:

- Abe, H., Shiraishi, S. and Arai, S. 1991. A new mole from Uotsurijima, the Ryukyu Islands. Journal of the Mammalogical Society of Japan 15: 47–60.
- Corbet, G. B. and Hill, J. E. 1992. The Mammals of the Indomalayan Region: A Systematic Review. Oxford University Press, Oxford, 488 pp.
